

Christian Book Reading Challenge

Don't forget, the only important book you read this year is God's word!

(Try out a bible reading plan and see if you can read it all in a year)

- A book published in the last two years
- A biography or autobiography
- A classic
- A book about a book of the bible
- A book that has won a Christian Book of the Year award
- A book about a current social issue
- A book about theology
- A book recommended by your minister
- A book by C.S. Lewis or J.I. Packer
- A book that has a fruit of the Spirit in the title
- A book about prayer
- A book from a theological viewpoint you disagree with
- A book about Christian living
- A book whose title comes from a bible verse
- A book you own but have never read
- A book about church history
- A book about relationships
- A secular bestseller in fiction (to discuss from a Christian perspective)
- A secular bestseller in non-fiction (to discuss from a Christian perspective)
- A book about evangelism
- A book you have read before
- A book of fiction
- A book about another religion
- A book you read with a friend from church
- A devotion book leading up to Easter or Christmas (Lent or Advent)